

River Dance Tickets!

The lucky winner will be announced on Monday 8th February.

Dear Members and Non Members

On behalf of the ICB committee, I would like to follow up on a recent message which I sent to you in January this year. In wishing you all a Very Happy New Year, I also mentioned that the Irish Club of Belgium would shortly be announcing the lucky winner of two tickets for the show Riverdance. The ICB committee has purchased two tickets for the show which takes place on 28 February, in Brussels.

The lucky winner will be selected from our Membership database, in recognition of those who have renewed their membership with the Irish Club.

If your membership is not yet up for renewal, then please do not worry, your name will be included in the draw. If however, you have received a reminder recently that your membership is due to expire or has indeed expired, you will have until the end of this week, Sunday 7 February to renew your membership.

For those of you who have recently renewed your membership, and to our new members, I would like to take this opportunity to say a very big Thank You and Welcome On Board.

The lucky winner will be announced on Monday 8th February.

For details on where you can renew your membership, please select the following link http://www.irishclub.be/membership_application.php?

A reminder once again of the membership fees which were reduced in 2008.

Family (30 euros)

Single (20 euros)

Student (10 euros)

Au-Pair (10 euros)

Stagiaire (10 euros)

I wish you all good luck in the draw.

| With warmest regards
Yvonne Mulcahy
